Dear David

We are pleased to advise you that your application for a Sydney Southeast Asia Centre Collaborative Research Grant has been successful. You have been awarded $18,094 for your project entitled "Agricultural Windfalls and Conflict in Southeast Asia".

The purpose of the SSEAC Collaborative Research Grant is to provide a pathway to quality applications to the NHMRC, ACIAR, ARC Discovery and Linkage schemes.

As a Collaborative Research grant recipient, you are required to:

- Submit an application to the NHMRC, ACIAR, ARC Linkage Project or ARC Discovery Project scheme by 30 June 2023 where the Chief Investigator is an academic employed at the University of Sydney
- Participate in the relevant SSEAC Hothouse
- Record a SSEAC Stories podcast
- Present your work at a SSEAC event, if requested
- Have written at least one op-ed piece based on this research for newspaper or online publication
- Provide evidence of submission of a manuscript in a quality academic journal or similar (if collaborating with an academic partner) or equivalent output if collaborating with a non-academic partner by June 2023
- Fulfill the reporting requirements as follows:

Progress report one	Due 30 June 2022
Progress report two	Due 15 December 2022
Final report	Due 30 June 2023

If you have any questions about the condition of the award, please do not hesitate to contact the centre by email (sseac@sydney.edu.au) or telephone (9114 0953).

Yours sincerely

Prof Michele Ford
